

German – Week 12 – Country Research

Over the last term, you have been learning German words and phrases linked to a range of different topics.

In this lesson, you will carry out some research into Germany. There are many different areas that you could research, for example, you could find out about the population, capital city, famous buildings, sport in Germany, famous German people. The choice is entirely yours. Once you have completed your research, you can present it in any format. Some of the ways that you could present it are:

- Fact file
- Poster
- PowerPoint
- Booklet / leaflet

Here are some useful sources for research.
