

History – Week 12 – The Tudors

In this lesson, you will be learning about the wives of Henry VIII. Read the PowerPoint to find out more about his wives.

Watch the following clip to learn the song to help you remember the names of his wives and the order in which he married them.

When Henry VIII's third wife, Jane Seymour died, he was sent paintings of noble and royal women to look so that he could choose a new wife. Draw a portrait of a potential wife for Henry VIII.

Add personal details to give Henry more information about the potential wife. You can use the images of his wives to help you with drawing your own portrait.
